Under the active leadership of Ken Jenness, the Junior Class — the famous “Red Hat” Class has had a busy year. During the general preparations for B-Day, there was Junior Day at the “Barn,” when spectators might have seen the active troupers proceed en masse to the barn to become carpenters. In the fall a Sock Hop was sponsored, followed in the spring by a Sugar Party.

You should have seen the Junior Assembly when they wore their red hats and sang the Junior Song.

Big plans are already being made for next year.

With forty-three active Sophomores around the L. T. C. campus, activities were really moving. Among the two-year students — twenty-two of them — there was always the constant scurrying to prepare and get in lesson plans.

Have you ever noticed that the people who have the most to do always seem to be able to take on additional tasks. This particular class has shown this to be true.

These Sophomores liked dancing so very much that they sponsored two dances.

Who could forget the "quiz program" assembly?

Lyndon Teachers College welcomed in a large and lively freshman class this year. This is the first freshman class at L. T. C. the members of which all look forward to four year on the campus. To judge by the first year L. T. C. may look forward to three more very interesting years. The freshmen sponsored a hobo dance at which everyone enjoyed himself thoroughly. They also gave us an enjoyable Christmas assembly. We expect to hear a lot about the sophomores next year.

The Art Club was organized last fall. One of the main aims of this club was to give recognition to local artists through exhibitions. Many exhibits have been held including one by our own students. Others who have exhibited paintings were students from Goddard Collee, Mr. Robert W. Bruce, our own art instructor and local artist, Mr. Johnson from Johnson Teachers College, and Mr. Haskens of St. Johnsbury.

Our new Art room in Bole Hall has greatly facilitated the activities of the Art Club.

Never out-fought, the team is to be commended for a good record made possible only through the efforts of every man on the squad.

The Campus Co-op was organized early last fall and has enjoyed a very prosperous year. It has successfully combined business with pleasure when sponsoring the Canasta Party, record dances, and Sliding Party. Members received rebates on cash purchases after the first semester and are looking forward to similar profits at the close of the year.

At the annual meeting in May the members voted to have a final outing to Seymour Lake. The members agreed to put the interest on their shares into the fund for this trip.

This year the membership was around thirty-seven and we are looking forward to a much larger membership next year.

The Dormitory Council is the body which works to keep our dormitory life running smoothly. The Council meets once a month to discuss dormitory problems and to decide on problems which need to be discussed at House Meetings. The Council, which appoints people to be responsible for the house duties, is made up of the Dean, Miss Grant; the House Mother, Mrs. Merriam; the House President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer and a representative from each class. The members of the Council put on a birthday supper several times a year and plan the entertainment for the formal House Meetings, held once a month.

The activities of the Dramatic Club were greatly enhanced this year by the offering of an elective course in Theatre Arts during the second semester. Members of this class, in conjunction with the regular club membership, sponsored an evening of one-act plays, singing acts, and skits, on B-Day, using the arena drama style in the middle of L. I. Auditorium. In January, on a newly constructed sectional platform stage, the combined groups sponsored a very successful evening of plays, under the student direction featuring Barrie's one-act play, The Twelve-Pound Look, and Synge's one-act tragedy, Riders To The Sea.

During the second semester, the Dramatic Club joined with the members of the musical organizations in presenting the three-act opera, The Bohemian Girl, which was given in an adapted form of arena drama on the college Campus. Original dances were composed, appropriate costumes were assembled, and unusual lighting effects were employed.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Second row: B. Smith, F. Potter, R. Carter, G. Badger, N. Hinton

Adviser	Rita L. Bole

The Executive Board is made up of students elected to represent the classes and organizations, with its main purpose being to represent the student body in matters concerning administration, school activities, and campus privileges. This year under the active leadership of Everett Mitchell, the Executive Board had a large share in the planning and carrying out of the B-Day program. Soon after school started, a Pep Rally was called in order to get the students interested in this project. From that point onward, the members of the board worked valiantly, making it possible to climax the whole series of activities with a B-Day Open House on January 30.

Members of the musical organizations participated in a Christmas Concert, consisting of a group of representative Christmas music. One of the features of the evening's entertainment was its variety of Christmas moods.

The orchestra regularly played during the beginning portion of each assembly program. The men's chorus entertained in an assembly.

During the second semester, the musical groups combined with the Dramatic Club in presenting Balfe's The Bohemian Girl, an opera in three acts. This successful presentation with its great variety of different types of music was in lieu of a spring concert.

The music for commencement activities finished what could be called a very musical year at L. T. C.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club has for its purpose the promotion of a better understanding of other countries with the growth of international sympathies. This year they have sponsored many interesting speakers from such places as India, China and Cuba who have brought their countries close to Lyndon Teachers College. Members of the club have been in active correspondence with International Relations Clubs in other Vermont Colleges, and have attended several conferences sponsored for the growth of international understanding.

The highlight of the year came on May 20 when the Vermont International Relations Club Council met on the campus of L. T. C.

Our writing group has been active this year. We got together once a week to write up our news for the local papers. As often as possible we had pictures taken of the various school events of public interest. Copies of these pictures were then sent to newspapers in the sections from which our students came.

Norman Lewis and Barbara Whitney wrote up a weekly school paper called the Blue Sheet, which kept us all up to date with the latest events of the current week.

Members of the club took an active part in the preparations for B-Day publicity. When this great day was over, we wrote, and produced a B-Day Booklet so that each one in our school might have a permanent souvenir of the happening.

When we look over the clippings in our club scrapbook, we realize that a busy year has been spent at L. T. C.

VERLYN BOARD

The Verlyn appears to have made improvements over the book of last year. During the Verlyn Board Assembly questionnaires were filled out to get ideas of what the students wanted in their yearbook. This year we have a picture of a school building, our new Bole Hall, near where the pictures of the activity groups were taken. Also this year, the list of the outstanding events of the college year was added.

For the second year, the Verlyn Board has been under the able leadership of Richard Peterson.

The W. A. A., fostering sports participation for all women of the College engaged in Sports Days in each of the major sports—soccer, basketball, and softball. Johnson Teachers College was met in all three sports during the year. A volleyball club was also formed, and played a series of matches in the spring.

The high-light of the year was the basketball Sports Day at Vermont Junior College, when the team brought credit both to itself and to the college by its display of fine teamwork and excellent sportsmanship.

ACTIVITY DURING B-DAY

At the beginning of the school year what we now term Bole Hall consisted of the small Cutting House and an old barn attached to the ell. With determination, hard work, and a great deal of fun, the faculty and students of Lyndon Teachers College assisted by the citizens of the surrounding area changed these two buildings into modern classrooms made up of a kindergarten, a reading clinic, a men's lounge, and several classrooms.

A large portion of the work was done on B-Day, a day set aside for labor on the actual buildings and for carrying on activities to help pay the expenses of the project.

The building was officially opened on January 30, at the beginning of the second semester. At that time, it was dedicated to President Rita L. Bole and christened Bole Hall in her honor. It was due to Miss Bole's untiring efforts, courage, and determination that made the start, the activities, and the successful conclusion of the project possible. We are all proud of Bole Hall and for what it stands at L. T. C.
